Secretary's Report

~Minutes read & approved

Treasurer's Report

~ No report due to wind storm and power outage.

Principal's Report

~ Turf is in. :) Field dedication was held last Friday. Hope to have 2013

Homecoming football game here.

~ Stadium consultant hired to help with design & layout of bleachers. Not sure if bleacher grant of $850,000 will be enough to cover the total cost.

~ C hall construction to start in late winter/early spring. Delayed start due to lack of timeliness of city to certify the vote when Proposition #1 passed last spring. Cafeteria or gym construction to begin in summer months.

~ Homecoming was held Saturday, September 8th. Students did a great job with planned activities. However, the dance was shut down early due to inappropriate dancing. Student government has been asked to come up with plans for future dances to avoid a similar outcome.

~ 1 teacher still to hire for this year. Some classes up to #36 students.

~ Open House to be held Wednesday, September 19th 6:30 pm

~ No wind damage to the school during the last wind storms.

Teacher Report

~ Many new faces

~ Big push this year in reading. #133 students tested below proficient in reading on placement tests.

~ RTI – Response to Instruction. 9Th & 10th grade students to be tested in reading now, Nov., and April. This is above and beyond the SBA testing. Students will then be placed in English class based on test scores. Same principal to be used and implemented next year for math and the following year for writing.

Student Report

- ~ Homecoming was awesome. Fun Spirit Week ~ lots of participation.
- ~ AWSAG Leadership conference soon.
- ~ Winter Frost dance Nov 30th
- ~ Community Involvement starting soon.

Cougar Cache Report
